

Diving into Mastery - Diving

Adult Guidance with Question Prompts

Children will need colouring pencils (to match these colours) and coloured cubes (that don't need to match these colours).

What are ordinal numbers?

What colour is the first cube?

What colour is the last cube?

Which cube is orange?

Which cube is blue?

Can you make your own stick using six cubes?

What colour is your third cube?

What position is your 'red' cube in?

Can you describe your stick?

Ordinal Numbers

Follow these instructions to colour the row of squares.

1st → red

2nd → yellow

3rd → blue

4th → green

5th → orange

6th → pink

--	--	--	--	--	--

Can you make a stick using 6 cubes and describe it to a friend using ordinal numbers?

Diving into Mastery - Deeper

Adult Guidance with Question Prompts

Read the statements to the children while they look carefully at the picture. They could label the cars with ordinal numbers to help them. Children may need an ordinal number line to help them.

What position is the red car in?

Is the light green car in third place? What position is the light green car in?

What colour car is in the last place?

Can you think of another way of saying 'last' using an ordinal number?

What places are the blue cars in?

Ordinal Numbers

Look at the racetrack and decide whether the sentences are true or false.

The red car is in 1st place.

The light green car is in 3rd place.

The car in last place is yellow.

The car in 5th place is orange.

The cars in 4th and 9th places are blue.

Can you make statements about the race using ordinal numbers?

Diving into Mastery - Deepest

Adult Guidance with Question Prompts

It may help children to write ordinal numbers underneath the letters. Children will need whiteboards and pens to write their names for the last part of the activity.

What is the 4th letter of the alphabet?

Can you write that at the beginning of her name?

Can you find all the letters in her name?

What is the last letter of her name?

What is the girl's name?

What is the boy's name?

Write your name down. Can you see any of these letters in your name? Which ones?

Can you say what position the letters appear in your name?

Ordinal Numbers

These children are giving clues about the letters in their names. They are using the order of the first 10 letters of the alphabet. Can you work out what their names are?

A B C D E F G H I J

Does your name have any of the first 10 letters of the alphabet? Use ordinal numbers to describe which ones.