Varied Fluency Step 2: Present Perfect Form

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 5: (5G4.1b) Using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause'

Differentiation:

Developing Questions to support using the present perfect form of regular verbs within single-clause sentences.

Expected Questions to support using the present perfect form of regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences.

Greater Depth Questions to support using the present perfect form of regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences. Some sentences contain multiple verbs in the present perfect form.

More resources from our Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling scheme of work.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website.

© Classroom Secrets Limited 2019

Varied Fluency – Present Perfect Form – Teaching Information

2a. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?       2b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       2b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       A. You have walked such a long way.         B. Jack has scratched his arm.       B. She walked until her feet were sore.         Image: Structure of false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.       3b. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.         It was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.	Present Perfect Form	Present Perfect Form
Image: A state of the sentence is written in the present perfect tense?       2b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       2b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       A. You have walked such a long way.         B. Jack has scratched his arm.       B. She walked until her feet were sore.         Image: A strue or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.       3b. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.         It was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.         Image: A state of the present perfect form.       4b. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         They have here for the last ten years or so.       here for the	sentence is written in the present perfect	sentence is written in the present perfect
2a. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?       2b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       2b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       A. You have walked such a long way.         B. Jack has scratched his arm.       B. She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       B. She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She walked until her feet were sore.         image: scratched his arm.       She true or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.         if was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.         image: scratche below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.       Meetin below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         The dog has outside all day.       Meetin below to complete all day. </td <td>I have jumped that high before.</td> <td>He has washed his sports kit.</td>	I have jumped that high before.	He has washed his sports kit.
present perfect tense?       present perfect tense?         A. The branch scratched Jack on his arm.       A. You have walked such a long way.         B. Jack has scratched his arm.       B. She walked until her feet were sore.         i       i         3a. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.       3b. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.         It was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.         i       i         i       i         i       the present perfect form.         i       the snow has started to fall.         i       i         i       the present perfect form.         i       the present perfect form.         i       the snow has started to fall.         i       i         i       the present perfect form.         i       the present perfect form.         i       the dog has outside all day.	VF	VF his arm.       way.         B. Jack has scratched his arm.       B. She walked until her feet were sore.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       Sb. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.         It was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         It was really sunny perfect form the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.       4b. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         They have here for the last ten years or so.       The dog has outside all day.
sore.   3a. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.   3b. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.   It was really sunny yesterday.   4a. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.   4a. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.   They have here for the last ten years or so.
3a. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.       3b. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.         It was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.         It a. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.       4b. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         They have here for the last ten years or so.       The dog has outside all day.	B. Jack has scratched his arm.
contains a verb in the present perfect form.       contains a verb in the present perfect form.         It was really sunny yesterday.       The snow has started to fall.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       The snow has started to fall.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       The snow has started to fall.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       The snow has started to fall.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form.       It was really sunny yesterday.         Image: Contains a verb in the present perfect form. </td <td>VF</td> <td>VF</td>	VF	VF
An a choice a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.       4b. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         They have here for the last ten years or so.       The dog has outside all day.	contains a verb in the present perfect	contains a verb in the present perfect
4a. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.       4b. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         They have here for the last ten years or so.       The dog has outside all day.	It was really sunny yesterday.	The snow has started to fall.
selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.       selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.         They have here for the last ten years or so.       The dog has outside all day.	VF	VF
last ten years or so. day.	selection below to complete this	selection below to complete this live lived living play playing played		• •
classroomsecrets.co.uk

classroomsecrets.co.uk

© Classroom Secrets Limited 2019

Varied Fluency – Present Perfect Form – Year 5 Developing

Present Perfect Form	Present Perfect Form
5a. Underline the verbs that show this sentence is written in the present perfect tense.	5b. Underline the verbs that show this sentence is written in the present perfect tense.
Sally, the girl sat next to me, has been my best friend for years.	Jack, my big brother, has wanted to be an actor for as long as I can remember.
VF	VF
6a. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?	6b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?
A. My mum, who's a nurse, has worked in our local hospital since she was 22.	A. I finished my homework project yesterday, so I can play on my bike today.
B. My mum, who will be 40 tomorrow, used to work as a nurse in our local hospital.	B. I feel relieved that I have completed my homework project already.
7a. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.	7b. True or false? The sentence below contains a verb in the present perfect form.
My teacher is rather pleased because the class have gone out to play early.	The children, who were glad to be outside, screamed and chased each other around the playground.
VF	VF
8a. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.	8b. Choose a suitable verb from the selection below to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.
We should be going on holiday tomorrow; however, I have my suitcase.	I have whilst watching so many films now, that I always take a hanky with me to the cinema.
lose losing lost	cry cried crying
VF	VF

classroomsecrets.co.uk

Varied Fluency – Present Perfect Form – Year 5 Expected

Present Perfect Form	Present Perfect Form
9a. Underline the verbs that show this sentence is written in the present perfect tense.	9b. Underline the verbs that show this sentence is written in the present perfect tense.
The old man, who is now very frail, has lived here for several years and I have visited him almost every day.	Unfortunately, Tommy has broken his leg, so he has gone to hospital to have it plastered.
↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓ ↓	VF
10a. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?	10b. Which sentence is written in the present perfect tense?
A. Several years ago, Sara and I became good friends but she always seem to get in trouble.	A. Our greedy cat has guzzled all of the milk so dad has been to the shops to buy some more.
B. Sara, from next door, has known me for several years now and I have loved every minute it of it.	B. The thirsty cat drank all of the milk, consequently dad had to go and buy some more.
VF VF	VF VF
11a. True or false? The sentence below contains verbs in the present perfect form.	11b. True or false? The sentence below contains verbs in the present perfect form.
Today, we have seen two buzzards flying above our house and it appears that they have built a nest in the nearby tree.	Last week, my friends and I raised some money for a local charity by washing and drying our neighbours cars.
VF VF	VF VF
12a. Choose two suitable verbs to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.	12b. Choose two suitable verbs to complete this sentence in the present perfect form.
I am certain that we have this film already,	Excitingly, there has a festival in the village and I have although I have eating	a prize for growing the
the popcorn.	largest pumpkin.
VF	VF

classroomsecrets.co.uk

Varied Fluency – Present Perfect Form – Year 5 Greater Depth

Varied Fluency Present Perfect Form

Developing

1a. have jumped 2a. B 3a. False 4a. lived

Expected 5a. has been 6a. A 7a. True 8a. lost

Greater Depth 9a. has lived, have visited 10a. B 11a. True 12a. Answers must include a past participle, for example: seen, enjoyed

Varied Fluency Present Perfect Form

Developing 1b. has washed 2b. A 3b. True 4b. played

Expected 5b. has wanted 6b. B 7b. False 8b. cried

Greater Depth 9b. has broken, has gone 10b. A 11b. False 12b. Answers must include a past participle, for example: been, won

© Classroom Secrets Limited 2019