

Varied Fluency

Step 5: Recognising the Future Perfect Form

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 5: (5G4.1b) Using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause

Differentiation:

Developing Questions to support recognising the future perfect form of regular verbs within single-clause sentences.

Expected Questions to support recognising the future perfect form of regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences.

Greater Depth Questions to support recognising the future perfect form of regular and irregular verbs within multi-clause sentences. Some sentences contain multiple verbs in the future perfect form. This also includes recognising the future perfect form in negative sentences.

More resources from our Grammar, Punctuation and Spelling scheme of work.

Did you like this resource? Don't forget to review it on our website.

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

1a. Sort the sentences into the correct place in the table.

A. I will dress up for the party tomorrow.

B. Cian will have finished his homework before the concert.

simple future	future perfect

VF

1b. Sort the sentences into the correct place in the table.

A. I cooked a roast dinner on Sunday.

B. Ben will have booked a trip for the summer holidays.

simple past	future perfect

VF

2a. True or false? The sentence below is written in the future perfect form.

I will have visited my gran.

VF

2b. True or false? The sentence below is written in the future perfect form.

He will have locked the gate.

VF

3a. Match the sentences to their tense.

A. Beth will have started her homework.

present perfect

B. Martin has helped his dad for weeks.

future perfect

VF

3b. Match the sentences to their tense.

A. Jack and Lucy had cooked dinner.

future perfect

B. Rachel will have asked the teacher.

past perfect

VF

4a. Underline the verbs which are written in the future perfect form in the sentences below.

A. The teacher will have marked our books.

B. The postman will have delivered the parcels.

VF

4b. Underline the verbs which are written in the future perfect form in the sentences below.

A. The cheetah will have hunted its prey.

B. The chefs will have mixed the batter.

VF

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

5a. Sort the sentences into the correct place in the table.

A. I will have finished my homework before Lucy picks me up for dancing.

B. I have made a model of the solar system and I have taken it in to school.

present perfect	future perfect

VF

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

5b. Sort the sentences into the correct place in the table.

A. I will have flown back from Italy before school starts on Monday.

B. I will go to the supermarket and drop the parcel at the post office.

simple future	future perfect

VF

6a. True or false? The sentence below is written in the future perfect form.

I will have left the park before you get home after work.

VF

6b. True or false? The sentence below is written in the future perfect form.

By the time I got to the café, Sam had ordered the food.

VF

7a. Match the sentences to their tense.

A. As she wanted to save up some money, Jess had worked all summer.

past perfect

B. Karl will have learnt to ski by the time they go to the Alps.

future perfect

C. Jess and her family will have lived in Spain for ten years by the time we visit.

VF

7b. Match the sentences to their tense.

A. Sharon will have baked the birthday cake before the party starts.

future perfect

B. Colin and Jeff have played tennis together for three years, since they retired.

present perfect

C. To try and win, I will have trained every day before the big race.

VF

8a. Underline the verbs which are written in the future perfect form in the paragraph below.

Ali is going to watch a football match tomorrow. He will have arrived before the team so he is hoping to meet the players. The match will have begun by 2 o'clock.

VF

8b. Underline the verbs which are written in the future perfect form in the paragraph below.

Lily is going on holiday. She will have packed her suitcase by the time the taxi arrives. She will eat her lunch at the airport with her friends. The plane will have left by 12 o'clock.

VF

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

9a. Sort the sentences into the correct place in the table.

A. I will stand in line for as long as it takes to get my hands on some tickets.

B. I will not have known Claire very long by the time she has her party.

simple future	future perfect

VF

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

9b. Sort the sentences into the correct place in the table.

A. I will not have run as much as I would have liked to by the end of this week.

B. I had gone in to the village and I had dropped the parcel at the post office.

past perfect	future perfect

VF

10a. True or false? The sentence below is written in the future perfect form.

Mike and Simon will have rode their bikes for 10 miles before they reach the lake.

VF

10b. True or false? The sentence below is written in the future perfect form.

The girls will not have grew tall enough for the rides before they visit the theme park.

VF

11a. Match the sentences to their tense.

A. Carol will not have written her letter or sent her parcel before the post is collected.

present perfect

B. For two years, Darren has paid for his daughter's ballet lessons and has taken her to dance shows.

future perfect

C. Before we go on holiday, I will have bought a new swimming costume.

VF

11b. Match the sentences to their tense.

A. As there was only a week before he started university, Craig had read the handbook.

past perfect

B. Liv will have been travelling for three months by the time she returns home at Christmas.

future perfect

C. Before the monsoon season starts, the volunteers will have built the shelters.

VF

12a. Underline the verbs which are written in the future perfect form in the sentences below.

Before we get home, Amy will have seen her birthday present and the surprise will have been spoilt. We didn't have time to wrap her gift this morning. We don't leave work until 5pm and she will have left school before 4 o'clock.

VF

12b. Underline the verbs which are written in the future perfect form in the sentences below.

By half term, Thomas will have done all of his exams and he will have applied to his favourite colleges. He will not have had time to find ideas for holidays with his friends but he will organise this closer to the time. He is looking forward to relaxing.

VF

Varied Fluency

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

Developing

- 1a. A: simple future, B: future perfect
- 2a. True
- 3a. A: future perfect, B: present perfect
- 4a. A: will have marked, B: will have delivered

Expected

- 5a. A: future perfect, B: present perfect
- 6a. True
- 7a. A: past perfect, B: future perfect, C: future perfect
- 8a. will have arrived, will have begun

Greater Depth

- 9a. A: simple future, B: future perfect
- 10a. False, the future perfect form of the verb 'ride' is 'ridden'.
- 11a. A: future perfect, B: present perfect, C: future perfect
- 12a. will have seen, will have been, will have left

Varied Fluency

Recognising the Future Perfect Form

Developing

- 1b. A: simple past, B: future perfect
- 2b. True
- 3b. A: past perfect, B: future perfect
- 4b. A: will have hunted, B: will have mixed

Expected

- 5b. A: future perfect, B: simple future
- 6b. False, the sentence is written in the past perfect form.
- 7b. A: future perfect, B: present perfect, C: future perfect
- 8b. will have packed, will have left

Greater Depth

- 9b. A: future perfect, B: past perfect
- 10b. False, the future perfect form of the verb 'grow' is 'grown'.
- 11b. A: past perfect, B: future perfect, C: future perfect
- 12b. will have done, will have applied, will not have had