

1. Florence Nightingale was born in 1920 in Italy. She moved to England shortly after.
2. Florence grew up in a wealthy family. She wasn't expected to work but she wanted a job where she could help people.
3. Florence trained to be a nurse and in 1854, travelled to Crimea where there was a war. She found soldiers in the hospital without proper beds and in dirty conditions.
4. Florence helped clean the hospital and put fresh bandages on the soldiers. She also trained other nurses.
5. Florence became known as the lady with the lamp as she would often stay awake through the night to help the sick and injured soldiers.
6. In 1883, Florence received a medal called the Royal Red Cross for her nursing work.

Match the pictures to the sentences

