

Words Ending in -sure, -ture and -cher

Use your knowledge of the -sure, -ture, and -cher endings to complete each of the words below. Use each word in a sentence once they have been spelled correctly.

frac

prea

adven

punc

mix

plea

mea

fea

pres

but

clo

expo

Fracture – The boy had an arm fracture that needed to be plastered.

Preacher – The preacher at the church was very passionate about his teachings.

Adventure – George and Lily were going on an adventure at the weekend.

Puncture – Mum’s car got a puncture on the way to school this morning.

Mixture – Granny Mavis went to the shop to buy cake mixture to bake after school.

Pleasure – “It was a pleasure to meet you!” exclaimed Jeffrey.

Measure – It is important to measure the ingredients for the recipe carefully.

Feature – The reporter was writing an article to feature in tomorrow’s newspaper.

Pressure – My dad is feeling immense pressure at work so he is looking for a new job.

Butcher – Lucy went to see the butcher in the supermarket to choose the correct meat for the casserole.

Closure – The government forced the closure of the road because it was unsafe.

Exposure – Exposure to sunlight can cause your skin to burn.