

Unit fractions

1 Complete the sentences for each shape.

a)

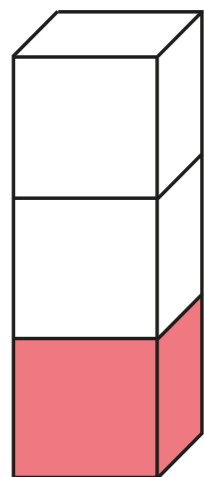

There are equal parts.

There is part shaded.

is shaded.

b)

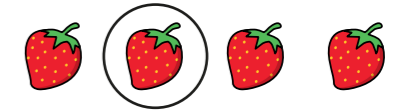

There are equal parts.

There is part shaded.

is shaded.

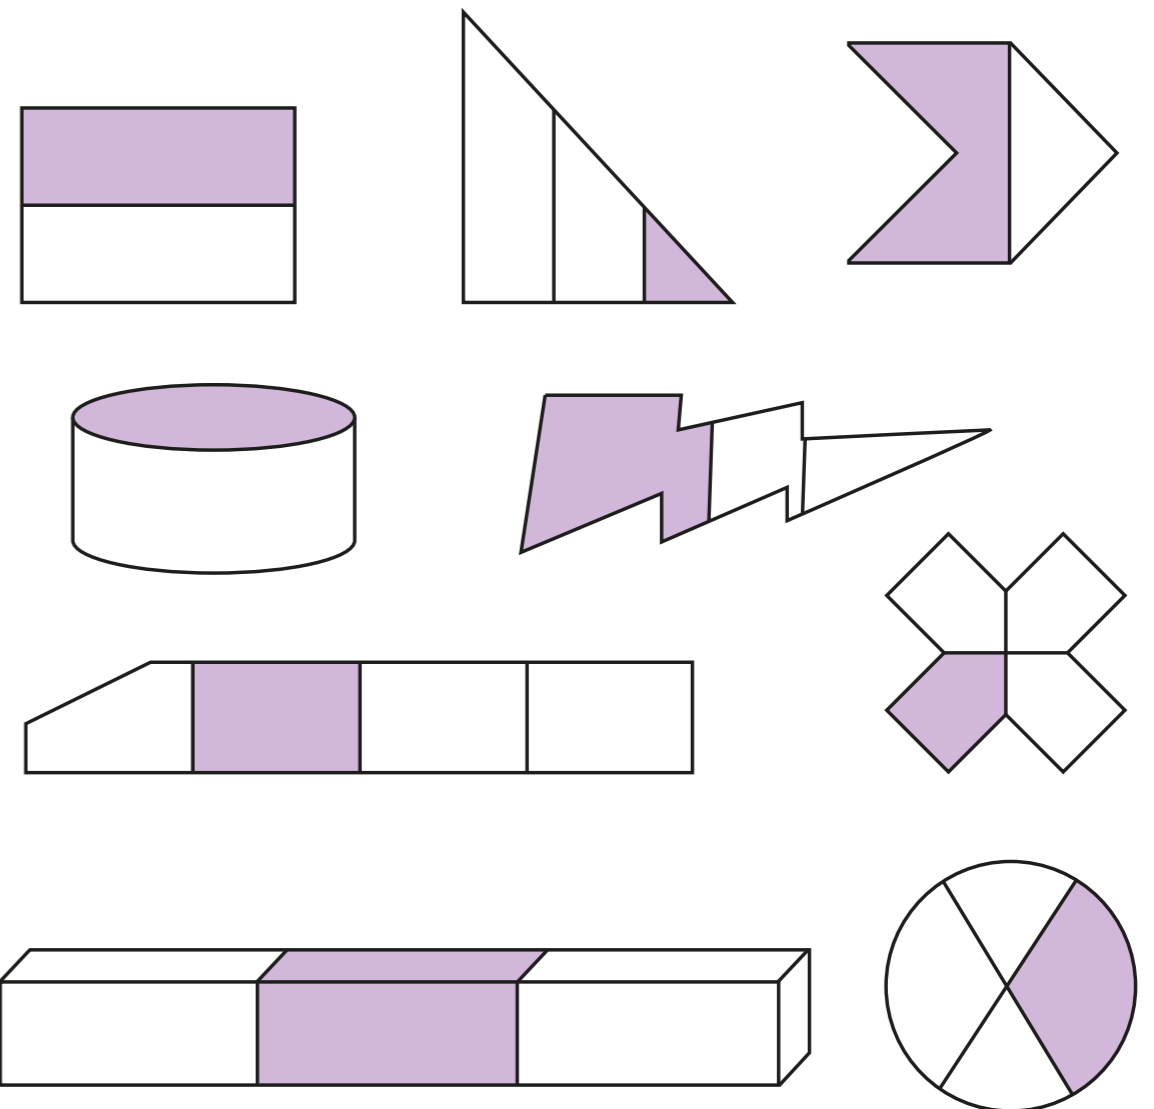

2 There are equal parts.

There is part circled.

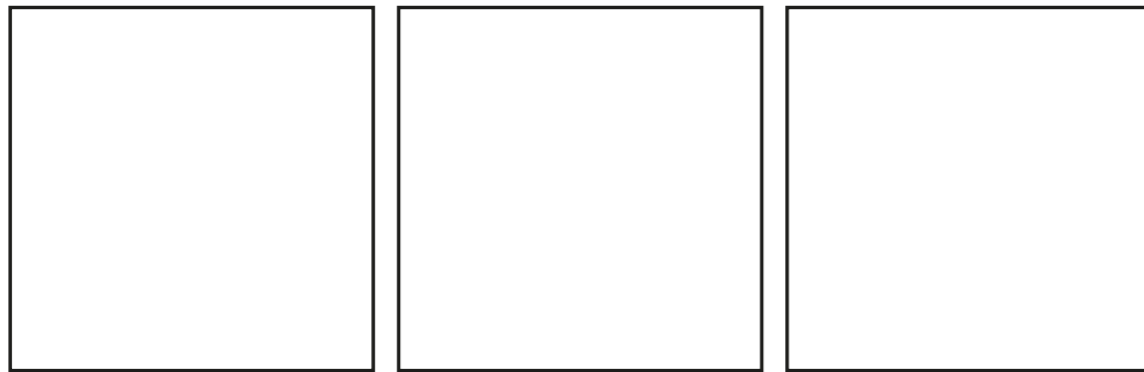

is circled.

3 Tick the shapes that have 1 equal part shaded.

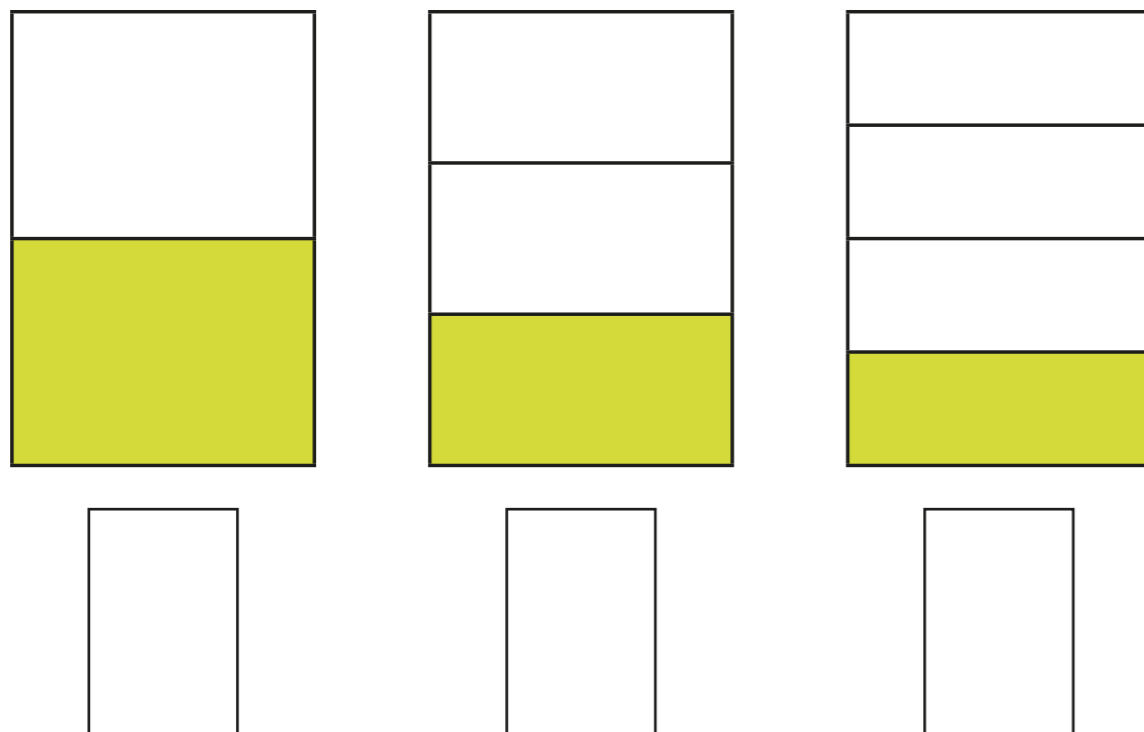

4 Split the squares and colour them to show different unit fractions.

Compare answers with a partner.

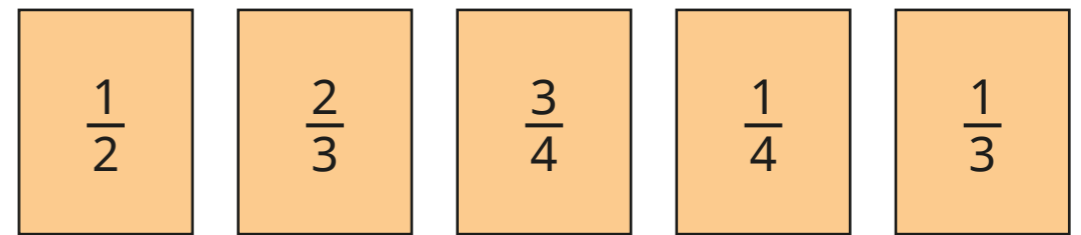

5 What fraction of each shape is shaded?

What is the same about the fractions?
What is different about them?

6 Here are some fractions.

Tick all the unit fractions.

Compare answers with a partner.

Can you think of any more unit fractions?

7 Match the pictures to the unit fractions.

The pictures include:

- Three pencils, with two circled.
- Four chairs, with two circled.
- Five sticks, with two circled.
- Five items (possibly pens or pencils), with three circled.

The unit fractions to match are:

- $\frac{1}{2}$
- $\frac{1}{3}$
- $\frac{1}{4}$
- $\frac{1}{5}$

