

Using Prepositions to Express Place

1. True or false? The underlined words in the sentence below are both prepositions that express place.

	True	False
My mum was shaking in her seat as we flew over the grey clouds.

VF
HW/Ext

2. Tick the sentences below that include a preposition that expresses place.

- A. Your package from Turkey arrived this morning.
- B. I will see you on Tuesday.
- C. My mum lives in a small house by the sea.

VF
HW/Ext

3. Change the preposition of place in Paige's sentence below so that her sentence makes sense.

We saw the fire being put out up our kitchen window.

Explain your choice.

AR
HW/Ext

Homework/Extension

Using Prepositions to Express Place

Developing

1. False, because 'flew' is a verb in the past tense. 'Over' is the only other preposition that expresses place in this sentence.
2. A and C
3. Various answers, for example: The preposition of place 'from' would make sense as it is followed by a noun (kitchen window). The sentence could read: We saw the fire being put out from our kitchen window.