

Beech Home Learning

(Due in Monday 20th January)

For your home learning this week, we would like you to write a piece of instruction writing which explains how to make someone you know either very happy or very angry.

We have included a modelled piece of writing to remind you of all the techniques that we have been using in class this term.

Once your writing is complete, please send it in so we can read it.

Beech Home Learning

(Due in Monday 20th January)

For your home learning this week, we would like you to write a piece of instruction writing which explains how to make someone you know either very happy or very angry.

We have included a modelled piece of writing to remind you of all the techniques that we have been using in class this term.

Once your writing is complete, please send it in so we can read it.