

Beech Homework

(Due in Monday after the Easter Holidays)

Here is the Quest Narrative that we created as a class. For your holiday homework, we want you to read this overview to remind you of our story. Then we want you to pick a chapter and focus on retelling it.

You could:

- tell the chapter orally to a member of your family
- create actions to accompany the chapter
- turn the chapter into a puppet show
- write the chapter
- make a comic strip or story board of the chapter
- make an animated version of the chapter

It is up to you!

A Knight's Quest by Beech Class

Chapter 1- The Unicorn Prince: Sir Fred travels to the Silver Castle to ask the Unicorn Prince for a potion help him on his quest and a magic sword to defeat the dragon and rescue Prince Paul. The Unicorn Prince takes Sir Fred to his Castle and picks out 4 different potions. Sir Fred picks the potion. The unicorn Prince also gives Sir Fred a map and lets him ride on his back.

Chapter 2- The Scary Forest: Sir Fred and the Unicorn Prince travel to the Scary Forest. Sir Fred looks at the map for find a way through the forest. He finds a signpost that gives directions out of the forest. However, the Bad Fairy has cast a spell that leads them the wrong way into The Mountains of Life.

Chapter 3- Crossing the Mountains of Life: Sir Fred and The Unicorn Prince climb the mountain. They have to cross a rickety rope bridge over a huge canyon. They meet The Good Fairy who leads them to the Magic Flower Meadow and the secret portal.

Chapter 4- The Portal: They walk towards the Portal. The Good Fairy asks them to solve a riddle. They get it right and jump into the portal. They hold on tightly to their belongings. They jump out of the Portal as they reach the Desert of Loneliness.

Chapter 5- The Wall: They cross the desert and reach the wall. Sir Fred leaves the Unicorn Prince and tells him to go back to his castle. Sir Fred climbs the wall by himself and climbs down the other side.

Ch 6- The Volcano: Sir Fred creeps into a cave at the foot of the volcano. They find the dragon sleeping and pour the magic ingredient into his drinking bowl. The potion turns the bad dragon into a good dragon. But they can't find Prince Paul. They wait for the Dragon to wake up. The Magic Sword makes the Dragon speak and he tells them that Prince Paul is being held in the Underground Castle.

Chapter 7- Finding Prince Paul: Sir Fred climbs the wall. He travels across the Desert. He asks the Dolphin help to cross the River. The Dolphin tells him he saw the Wizard and Witch lock up the Prince in the underground castle. Sir Fred travels to the underground castle.

Chapter 8- Saving Prince Paul: Sir Fred enters the underground castle. He sees the evil Witch and Wizard. The Magic Sword divides in two killing the Witch and Wizard. They rescue Prince Paul and travel through another secret Portal that takes them back to Queen Elinor. The Queen is very thankful to the Knight for rescuing her son and throws a party.