

What is a Sentence?

1. Which sentence is correct?

A. Did the phone just ring.

B. The is white.

C. Kaleb's glasses are new.

D. The microwave loudly.

VF

4. Vanessa is practicing writing sentences.

A. Her kit sports was left at home.

B. During winter, robins appear

C. The bathroom mirror needed.

Rewrite the sentences correctly.

A

2. List the pair of words that need to swap position in each sentence for the sentences to make sense.

A. In the study, the tall book shelves full are.

B. Anya's bedroom carpet many has stains.

C. The log brown rolled down the hill.

VF

5. Isaac is looking at some sentences.

A. The iron ruined the.

B. Those seeds quickly in the flower pot.

Both of these sentences are missing a verb.

Do you agree with Isaac? Justify your answer.

R

3. Match the correct word to each sentence. Each word can only be used once.

A. The blue _____ was filled with water.

B. All the cushions in the living room _____ .

C. The _____ spoon fell on the ground.

match

bottle

rusty

VF

6. Combine some of these words on the flashcards to create a sentence. Punctuation is hidden behind the splats.

your

like eating

soggy

does

brother

cereal

A

What is a Sentence?

1. C
2. A. full, are; B. many, has; C. log, brown
3. A. bottle, B. match, C. rusty
4. A. Her sports kit was left at home.; B. During winter, robins appear.; C has various answers, for example: The bathroom mirror needed repairing.
5. No, I disagree because sentence A requires a noun as it already has a verb (ruined). Sentence B requires a verb.
6. Various answers, for example: Your brother does like eating soggy cereal.; Does your brother like eating soggy cereal?