

Name _____

Grammar – Year 4

Fronted Adverbials

A fronted adverbial is when an adverbial phrase is at the beginning of a sentence. A comma is used to separate a fronted adverbial from a main clause.

1. Tick all the sentences that contain a fronted adverbial

- a) The children played football on the beach.
- b) Later that day, the teacher read the class a story.
- c) Slowly, the tortoise moved around the garden.
- d) The children cheered because the bell went.
- e) On Wednesday, we are all going to a football match.
