

Commas

1. Add the missing comma to the sentence below.

I like sugar lemon and treacle on my pancakes when it is Pancake Day.

VF
HW/Ext

2. True or false? The sentence below does not need any commas.

I love to exercise and I really enjoy playing football cricket and rugby with my friends.

VF
HW/Ext

3. Emily and George are discussing the use of commas in the sentence below.

The weather forecast said it would be cold wet and windy today.

Emily

No commas are needed in this sentence.

A comma is needed between 'cold' and 'wet.'

George

Who is correct? Explain why.

AR
HW/Ext

Homework/Extension

Commas

Developing

1. The missing comma is circled: I like sugar, lemon and treacle on my pancakes when it is Pancake Day.
2. False. There should be a comma between 'football' and 'cricket'.
3. George is correct. The sentence contains a list of 3 words to describe the weather. There should be a comma between the first 2 words in the list which are 'cold' and 'wet'.