

Sequencing Sentences

1. Select the sentence that can be added to the start of the passage below.

I set the table with my brother while he was cooking. After an hour, our dinner was ready.

- A. Every few days, my friend Tina would water her plants.
- B. On Friday, my father asked me how he should cook my steak.

VF
HW/Ext

2. Mohammad has jumbled up the sentences of his passage. Rearrange the sentences in the correct order using the box below.

- A. When the music played, everybody went wild on the dance floor.
- B. At her party, Sienna received many gifts.
- C. Every guest was given a party bag before they left.

--	--	--

VF
HW/Ext

3. Mark has written the passage below. He thinks the sequencing of the sentences is correct.

For his training, he ran on the cold, grassy field. He learnt many new skills during his training. Nathan wanted to improve his football skills because he wanted to play professionally.

Do you agree? Explain your reasoning and amend any mistakes.

AR
HW/Ext

Homework/Extension Sequencing Sentences

Developing

1. B

2. B; A; C

3. No, I disagree because Nathan has been introduced in the last sentence whereas he should've been introduced in the first sentence. The passage should be written as:
Nathan wanted to improve his football skills because he wanted to play professionally.
For his training, he ran on the cold, grassy field. He learnt many new skills during his training.