

This week, we have been learning to add -ed and -er to words ending in e.

Level 6

Adding -ed to words ending in e

When we change words ending in e to the past tense, we take away the e and add -ed.

scoreed
jokeed

When you add -ed to a word that ends in e, the -ed suffix makes the /d/ or /t/ sound.

Adding -er to words ending in e

When adding -er to words ending in e, we take away the e and add -er.

hikeer
bakeer

Common Exception Words

We have been learning to spell the common exception words whole and listen.

Focus Words

	hiked	timed	braved
baked	hiker	timer	braver
			baker

Grammar

This week, we have used the -ed suffix to change the tense of verbs.

- Verbs are words to describe an action.
- When we add the suffix -ed to verbs, it changes them to past tense.
- Past tense is when we talk about something which has already happened.

Happening now:

Sam and Kit hike up the hill.

Happened in the past:

Sam and Kit hiked up the hill.
