An Explosion of a Firework Night!

An unusual vision was seen by the residents of Galaxy village yesterday during the local, annual firework display. Onlookers watched with interest as a multicoloured witch flew across the sky. The scene was met with huge approval from a gasping crowd as the cackling character soared across the sky on a flaming broomstick, breaking up the mist of fireworks. "It was a sight not to be missed!" said Tom Lody, the local grocer of the village. "She certainly made the evening an even bigger success, which is what makes our community happy!"

However, it appears that the spectacle was planned by a local stunt gang called Explosion, whose aim is to meddle in public events. The leader of this group, Byron Brave, joked, "Wanda, our witch, deserves a medal for her flying stunt. She certainly ensured that the crowd were not bored at this evening's event!"

The village board of directors refused to comment on the evening's events due to health and safety concerns.
